National
Family & Life Week
May 11-18, 2025 Abound in hope

"Abound in hope!" This powerful message from St. Paul's Letter to the Romans is the theme for National Family and Life Week 2025, which begins on Sunday, May 11th, and concludes on Sunday, May 18th. As we journey together as "Pilgrims of Hope" in this Jubilee Year, let us reflect on the gift of hope God gives us through our families. This week is an opportunity to promote life and live out our call to love each other within our homes, communities, and the world.

May God's loving care inspire all families to abound in hope, living our call to holiness as missionary disciples. Let us not just be glimmers of hope but beacons of hope! As St. Paul encourages, "abound in hope!"

Blessed Be the Mother

(Luke 11:27-28)

Mary holds an important place in Christianity – not because men put her there, but because her own Son put her there... So devoted was he to her that when a woman in the crowd lifted up her voice in praise of his mother –

"Blessed is the womb that bore you and the breasts that nursed you" – he reminded that woman that his mother's glory was greater still: "Blessed rather those who hear the word of God and obey it!" He was harkening back then to Mary's humble answer to God's Word as announced by the angel: "Let it be with me according to your word" (Luke 1:38)...

Devotion to the mother of our Lord in no way detracts from the adoration of her divine Son. The brightness of the moon does not detract from the brilliance of the sun, but rather bespeaks its brilliance... Never has it been known that anyone who loved Mary denied the divinity of her Son. But it very often happens that those who show no love that those who show no love for Mary have no regard for the divinity of her Son. Every objection against devotion to Mary grows in the soil of an imperfect belief in the Son. It is a historical fact that, as the world lost the Mother, it also lost the Son. It may well be that, as the world returns to love of Mary, it will also return to a belief in the divinity of Christ.
